Dear Parent/Carer

You may be aware of some recent posts on social media about “school wars.” This is a TikTok trend where groups of schools are put into two teams, red and blue. Children are then encouraged to fight each other, film it, and share it online. This is a national issue and one that we have no direct control over.

Please be reassured that we, working with other agencies, are aware and monitoring the situation and will be talking to students as part of their tutor time.

You may feel you can help support us by:

- talking to your child about staying safe,
- avoiding online rumours,
- not taking part in any social media challenges linked to this trend.

Please continue to send your child to school as normal, as there is no reason not to and absence will be unauthorised.

Thank you for your support.

Yours sincerely

David Crossley
