1. Introduction

Under UK data protection law, individuals have a right to be informed about how our school, and the multi-academy trust we are part of, uses any personal data that we hold about them. We comply with this right by providing 'privacy notices' (sometimes called 'fair processing notices') to individuals where we are processing their personal data.

This privacy notice explains how we collect, store and use personal data about pupils at our school.

This privacy notice applies while we believe your child is not capable of understanding and exercising their own data protection rights.

Once your child is able to understand their rights over their own data (generally considered to be age 13, but this has to be considered on a case-by-case basis), you should instead refer to our privacy notice for pupils to see what rights they have over their own personal data. A copy of this policy can be located on the school's website.

Our trust, The Redhill Academy Trust, (Redhill Road, Arnold, Nottingham, NG5 8GX Tel 0115 9261481, email Trustoffice@theredhillacademy.org.uk) , is the 'data controller' for the purposes of UK data protection law.

Our data protection officer is Laura Stobbart (see 'Contact us' below).

2. The personal data we hold

Personal data that we may collect, use, store and share (when appropriate) about your child includes, but is not restricted to:

- Contact details, contact preferences, date of birth, identification documents
- Results of internal assessments and externally set tests
- Pupil and curricular records
- Exclusion information
- Attendance information
- Safeguarding information
- Details of any support received, including care packages, plans and support providers
- Information about their use of our information and communication systems, equipment and facilities (e.g. school computers)

We may also collect, use, store and share (when appropriate) information about your child that falls into 'special categories' of more sensitive personal data. This includes, but is not restricted to:

- Information about any medical conditions we need to be aware of, including physical and mental health

- Photographs and CCTV images captured in school
- Information about characteristics, such as ethnic background or special educational needs
- Free School Meals eligibility

We may also hold data about your child that we have received from other organisations, including other schools or trusts, and social services.

3. Why we use this data

We use the data listed above to:

- a) Fulfil our statutory obligations to safeguard and protect students and vulnerable people
- b) Support pupil learning
- c) Monitor and report on pupil progress
- d) Provide appropriate pastoral care
- e) Protect pupil welfare
- f) Assess the quality of our services
- g) Administer admissions waiting lists
- h) Carry out research
- i) Comply with the law regarding data sharing
- j) Make sure our information and communication systems, equipment and facilities (e.g. school computers) are used appropriately, legally and safely

We will only use your child's personal information for the purposes for which we have collected it, unless we reasonably consider that we need to use it for any other reason and that reason is incompatible with the original purpose. If we need to use your child's personal information for an unrelated purpose, we will notify you and explain the legal basis that allows us to do so.

Please note that we may process your child's personal information without your knowledge or consent in compliance with the above rules where this is required or permitted by law.

3.1 Use of your personal data for marketing purposes

Where parents/carers have given us consent to do so, we may send messages by email or text promoting school events, campaigns, charitable causes or services that might be of interest to you.

Parents/carers can take back this consent or 'opt out' of receiving these emails and/or texts at any time by contacting us (see 'Contact Us' below).

3.2 Use of your child's personal data in automated decision making and profiling

We do not currently process any pupils' personal data through automated decision making or profiling. If this changes in the future, we will amend any relevant privacy notices in order to explain the processing to you, including your right to object to it.

3.3 Use of your child's personal data for filtering and monitoring purposes

While your child is in our school, we may monitor their use of our information and communication systems, equipment and facilities (e.g. school computers). We do this so that we can:

- Comply with health and safety and other legal obligations
- Comply with our policies (e.g. child protection policy, IT acceptable use policy) and our legal obligations
- Keep our network(s) and devices safe from unauthorised access, and prevent malicious software from harming our network(s)
- Protect your child's welfare

4. Our lawful basis for using this data

We will only collect and use your information when the law allows us to. We need to establish a 'lawful basis' to do this, which falls under Article 6 and Article 9 of the GDPR (General Data Protection Regulation). This enables the Trust to process information under the Education Act 1996 and Regulation 5 of the Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013 and the Education Act 2005.

Where you have given your consent for us to use your child's information, you may take back this consent at any time. We'll make this clear when requesting consent and explain how you would go about withdrawing consent if you wish to.

4.1 Our basis for using special category data

- We need to use it to make or defend against legal claims
- We need to use it for reasons of substantial public interest as defined in legislation
- We need to use it for health or social care purposes, and it's used by, or under the direction of, a professional obliged to confidentiality under law
- We need to use it for public health reasons, and it's used by, or under the direction of, a professional obliged to confidentiality under law
- We need to use it for archiving purposes, scientific or historical research purposes, or for statistical purposes, and the use is in the public interest

National Pupil Database

We are required to provide information about pupils to the Department for Education as part of statutory data collections such as the school census and early years census.

Some of this information is then stored in the National Pupil Database (NPD), which is owned and managed by the Department for Education and provides evidence on school performance to inform research.

The database is held electronically so it can easily be turned into statistics. The information is securely collected from a range of sources including schools, local authorities and exam boards.

The Department for Education may share information from the NPD with third parties, such as other organisations which promote children's education or wellbeing in England. These third parties must agree to strict terms and conditions about how they will use the data.

For more information, see the Department for Education's webpage on how it collects and shares personal data.

You can also contact the Department for Education with any further questions about the NPD.

7.1 Immunisations and Vaccinations

The Department for Education issued guidance (December 2023) explaining that schools must share information with the School Age Immunisation Services (SAIS), who are commissioned by NHS England to deliver school-based immunisation programmes. Information that is to be shared on request includes a list of eligible children and young people and their parent or carer's contact details to the SAIS team.

The immunisation process is a matter of consent between the pupil, parent and/or carer and the SAIS provider. The school do not take any active role in the process. The obligation to share data is within public task and does not rely upon consent. It is mandatory for the school to share this information.
