Dear Parent/Carer

Visit to Loughborough University – 16th May 2024

Hall Park Academy has arranged a visit to Loughborough University on 16th May 2024 for students in Year 12. The purpose of the visit is to allow pupils to experience a higher education setting and receive information and guidance about Post-18 routes in education. Sessions will be delivered by the university professors and students will be given a guided tour of the campus.

The day will include:

- an introduction to Loughborough University
- a campus tour
- a talk about student life
- an overview of university and how it differs to school

There is no cost for this trip. Students will need to bring a packed lunch with a drink and snacks to eat throughout the day. We will be departing at 9.15am and returning at 3pm, travelling on a coach.

To give your child consent to attend this trip, please complete the consent form linked below.
